Investigating . . People

People make the school and personalities make people interesting. From loners to joiners to leaders, differences combine to form one student body.

Seniors hit the book trail once more

The senior year flew by quickly, high school is now a thing of the past. "Did you order your announcements?" "Have you made your survey for English yet?" "What are you wearing for your senior picture?" The float "Sink'em" won first place, but the hall project won "nothing."

"I really studied last night, I gotta pass my finals." "Graduation, that's what I'm looking forward to. "Has any college accepted you?" "I'm gonna miss my friends and the games." Graduation Week! Do you believe it's here?" Finally those years of cramming and studying will be worth the work. High school's over, but the problems of college, jobs, and marriage are just beginning.

Juniors are finally upperclassmen

"Hey, we're upperclassmen' is the happiest sound to any junior "Did you see her ring?" "Lemme see yours." "Not another pep session!" School spirit lagged, but even when we finally got together it didn't sound like much. "They should've given us an award for at least trying." "How's your classes?" "Boring." "Easy." "Don't know, I never make it to any." "You going to colege?" "Did you take the PSAT test?"

Classes got more complicated Some juniors lacked interest, some dropped out. Others studied thinking about college and credits "When did they start going together?"

"See ya after the game," "Is there a dance tonight?" "Any parties this weekend?" "Just think, only one more year. As the juniors finish their year, they realize that the future is approaching fast.

Well, there they are, the new freshmen. "I can't find my class." "Wow! Look at all those senior guys." Freshmen start all over again. "I guess that's where it starts — at the bottom." "But, we're on our way up." A new start on learning, studying, sock-hops, and for some just plain ole' confusion.

Freshmen cheerleaders and athletes learn the importance in being a team and squad. They learn the meaning of co-operation. "Where's our school spirit?" Some say it's due to "lazy classmates." Some get ahead and some stay behind, but that's the price you gotta pay for being a "frosh."
